

Key Stage Five: EDEXCEL A-Level English Literature (Year 12 2021-2022/Year 13 2022-2023)

Overall Curriculum Goals
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To understand and analyse a range of advanced texts including drama, prose, and poetry from the Renaissance to the Modern Era and explore their place in the canon of English Literature</li> <li>To understand how to critically evaluate a text in the form of an essay using perceptive analysis making links to literary, social, and historical contexts</li> <li>To be able to critically evaluate the academic writings of others and use this to support and develop academic writing.</li> </ul>
Year 12 Half Term 1	Year 12 Half Term 2	Year 12 Half Term 3	Year 12 Half Term 4	Year 12 Half Term 5	Year 12 Half Term 6
Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama A Streetcar Named Desire Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama A Streetcar Named Desire Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama A Streetcar Named Desire Othello Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama Othello Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Four: Non-Examination Assessment The Handmaid's Tale in comparison with another novel of the student's choice. Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama Othello	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Four: Non-Examination Assessment The Handmaid's Tale in comparison with another novel of the student's choice. Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component One: Drama Othello
Year 13 Half Term 1	Year 13 Half Term 2	Year 13 Half Term 3	Year 13 Half Term 4	Year 13 Half Term 5	Year 13 Half Term 6
Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Four: Non-Examination Assessment The Handmaid's Tale in comparison with another novel of the student's choice. Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component Four: Non-Examination Assessment The Handmaid's Tale in comparison with another novel of the student's choice. Component One: Drama Othello	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti Teacher Two (Four Lessons) Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons) REVISION Teacher Two (Four Lessons) REVISION	Teacher One (Five Lessons) REVISION Teacher Two (Four Lessons) REVISION

Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas	Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas	Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas	Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas
DRAMA Year 12: A Streetcar Named Desire CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of twentieth century American drama</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of stage directions</li> <li>• Use of sound (diegetic and non-diegetic)</li> <li>• Use of lighting</li> <li>• Literary, social, and historical context</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Stanley presented as a violent and dominant character?</li> <li>• How is Blanche presented as a character of contradictions?</li> <li>• How is Stella presented as oppressed?</li> <li>• How does Williams present ideas about fantasy and reality?</li> <li>• How does Williams present ideas about death and loss?</li> <li>• How does Williams present Blanche as a tragic character?</li> <li>• How does Williams explore the conflict between the Old South and the new industrialised North?</li> </ul> Year 13: Othello CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Iambic pentameter</li> <li>• Blank verse and prose</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>• Use of characters</li> <li>• Use of setting</li> <li>• The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul>	DRAMA Year 12: A Streetcar Named Desire CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of twentieth century American drama</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of stage directions</li> <li>• Use of sound (diegetic and non-diegetic)</li> <li>• Use of lighting</li> <li>• Literary, social, and historical context</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Stanley presented as a violent and dominant character?</li> <li>• How is Blanche presented as a character of contradictions?</li> <li>• How is Stella presented as oppressed?</li> <li>• How does Williams present ideas about fantasy and reality?</li> <li>• How does Williams present ideas about death and loss?</li> <li>• How does Williams present Blanche as a tragic character?</li> <li>• How does Williams explore the conflict between the Old South and the new industrialised North?</li> </ul> Year 12 and Year 13: Othello CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Iambic pentameter</li> <li>• Blank verse and prose</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>• Use of characters</li> <li>• Use of setting</li> <li>• The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul>	DRAMA Year 12: Othello CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Iambic pentameter</li> <li>• Blank verse and prose</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>• Use of characters</li> <li>• Use of setting</li> <li>• The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul>	DRAMA Year 12: Othello CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Iambic pentameter</li> <li>• Blank verse and prose</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>• Use of characters</li> <li>• Use of setting</li> <li>• The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul>

PROSE CONCEPTS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The literary, social, and historical context of the novel</li> <li>• The gothic: isolated settings, the supernatural, characters of duality, doubling, bleak weather and landscapes, melodrama)</li> <li>• Frame narrative/multiple narrators</li> <li>• The use of an epistolary narrative</li> <li>• The use of language</li> <li>• The use of imagery</li> <li>• The concept of the Byronic hero</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The features of a historical novel</li> <li>• The social and historical context of Afghanistan in the second half of the twentieth century during the rise of the Taliban.</li> <li>• A male author telling a female story.</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of dialogue</li> <li>• Multiple narrative focusses</li> </ul> Both Texts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The position of women</li> <li>• The oppression of women</li> <li>• Social class and conventions</li> <li>• Contrasting settings indicative of class and position</li> <li>• The violence of men</li> <li>• Different narrative voices and focusses</li> <li>• Death and loss</li> </ul> IDEAS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Heathcliff presented at the start of the novel? Why is he presented as a character in power?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Lockwood as a narrator?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Nelly Dean as a narrator?</li> <li>• How does Bronte explore the prejudices of social class?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present the relationships between Heathcliff and Catherine?</li> <li>• How does Bronte make use of the gothic?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present ideas about violence?</li> <li>• How does Bronte use the character of a Heathcliff as symbolic of wider social advancements in society during the 19th century?</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Mariam presented at the start of the novel? How is her future foreshadowed by her treatment?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between parents and children?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present the relationships and power dynamics between women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini use the background of the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan to explore issues of war, and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the significance of women and education?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the endurance and resilience of women in oppressed circumstances?</li> <li>• Despite being based on female accounts of life under the Taliban, do we need to question Hosseini's narrative bias and position as a man outside this experience?</li> </ul>	PROSE CONCEPTS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The literary, social, and historical context of the novel</li> <li>• The gothic: isolated settings, the supernatural, characters of duality, doubling, bleak weather and landscapes, melodrama)</li> <li>• Frame narrative/multiple narrators</li> <li>• The use of an epistolary narrative</li> <li>• The use of language</li> <li>• The use of imagery</li> <li>• The concept of the Byronic hero</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The features of a historical novel</li> <li>• The social and historical context of Afghanistan in the second half of the twentieth century during the rise of the Taliban.</li> <li>• A male author telling a female story.</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of dialogue</li> <li>• Multiple narrative focusses</li> </ul> Both Texts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The position of women</li> <li>• The oppression of women</li> <li>• Social class and conventions</li> <li>• Contrasting settings indicative of class and position</li> <li>• The violence of men</li> <li>• Different narrative voices and focusses</li> <li>• Death and loss</li> </ul> IDEAS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Heathcliff presented at the start of the novel? Why is he presented as a character in power?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Lockwood as a narrator?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Nelly Dean as a narrator?</li> <li>• How does Bronte explore the prejudices of social class?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present the relationships between Heathcliff and Catherine?</li> <li>• How does Bronte make use of the gothic?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present ideas about violence?</li> <li>• How does Bronte use the character of a Heathcliff as symbolic of wider social advancements in society during the 19th century?</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Mariam presented at the start of the novel? How is her future foreshadowed by her treatment?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between parents and children?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present the relationships and power dynamics between women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini use the background of the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan to explore issues of war, and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the significance of women and education?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the endurance and resilience of women in oppressed circumstances?</li> <li>• Despite being based on female accounts of life under the Taliban, do we need to question Hosseini's narrative bias and position as a man outside this experience?</li> </ul>	PROSE
--	--	---------------------

POETRY CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Narrative voice/speaker/poet's persona</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Form and structure</li> <li>• Internal structures: enjambment, caesura, end-stopped lines</li> <li>• Rhyme and rhythm</li> <li>• Sounds in poetry</li> <li>• Literary, social, and historical context (Rossetti)</li> <li>• Independent analysis of poetry (anthology and unseen)</li> <li>• Academic essay writing (including linking and comparison)</li> </ul> IDEAS Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti How does Rossetti explore love and relationships?  How does Rossetti explore God, faith, and religion?  How does Rossetti explore gender and the relationships between men and women?  How does Rossetti explore temptation and earthly pleasures?  How does Rossetti explore death and loss? Post-2000 Poetry Anthology How do poets explore ideas about identity?  How do poets explore ideas about moving from innocence to experience?  How do poets explore ideas about violence and conflict?  How do poets explore ideas about relationships?  How do poets explore the conflict between man and nature?	POETRY CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Narrative voice/speaker/poet's persona</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Form and structure</li> <li>• Internal structures: enjambment, caesura, end-stopped lines</li> <li>• Rhyme and rhythm</li> <li>• Sounds in poetry</li> <li>• Literary, social, and historical context (Rossetti)</li> <li>• Independent analysis of poetry (anthology and unseen)</li> <li>• Academic essay writing (including linking and comparison)</li> </ul> IDEAS Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti How does Rossetti explore love and relationships?  How does Rossetti explore God, faith, and religion?  How does Rossetti explore gender and the relationships between men and women?  How does Rossetti explore temptation and earthly pleasures?  How does Rossetti explore death and loss? Post-2000 Poetry Anthology How do poets explore ideas about identity?  How do poets explore ideas about moving from innocence to experience?  How do poets explore ideas about violence and conflict?  How do poets explore ideas about relationships?  How do poets explore the conflict between man and nature?	POETRY
NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT Year 13: The Handmaid's Tale (Final drafting stage before submission) CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Narrative perspective</li> <li>• Narrative structure</li> <li>• Stream of consciousness</li> <li>• Flashback</li> <li>• Epistolary narrative/retrospective narrative</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of names</li> <li>• Social and historical context</li> <li>• Genre of speculative fiction and dystopian tropes</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How does Atwood use Offred's narrative perspective to present the experience of Handmaids in Gilead?</li> <li>• How does Atwood present systems of power and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Atwood draw upon real historical events in the novel?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the power dynamic in relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the power dynamic in relationships between women?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the nature of motherhood and sacrifice?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore biblical precedent in the creation of oppressive theocratic societies?</li> <li>• How does Atwood Offred's narrative voice as continually controlled and oppressed?</li> </ul>	NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT	NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT Year 12: The Handmaid's Tale (Initial teaching of set text before independent stud and writing coursework for Summer task). CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Narrative perspective</li> <li>• Narrative structure</li> <li>• Stream of consciousness</li> <li>• Flashback</li> <li>• Epistolary narrative/retrospective narrative</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of names</li> <li>• Social and historical context</li> <li>• Genre of speculative fiction and dystopian tropes</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How does Atwood use Offred's narrative perspective to present the experience of Handmaids in Gilead?</li> <li>• How does Atwood present systems of power and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Atwood draw upon real historical events in the novel?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the power dynamic in relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the power dynamic in relationships between women?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore the nature of motherhood and sacrifice?</li> <li>• How does Atwood explore biblical precedent in the creation of oppressive theocratic societies?</li> <li>• How does Atwood Offred's narrative voice as continually controlled and oppressed?</li> </ul>

VOCABULARY		VOCABULARY		VOCABULARY
DRAMA A Streetcar Named Desire Vulnerable Fragile Elysian Delusion Fantasy Hierarchy Power Industrialised Romanticised Dominance  Othello Malcontent Malicious Duplicitous Perfidious Malevolent Hubristic Hamartia Catharsis Exposition Denouement	Play Playwright Audience Act Scene Character Stage Direction Dialogue Monologue Soliloquy Protagonist Antagonist Narrator Tragic hero/heroine Hamartia Hubris Interrogative dialogue Imperative Declarative dialogue Exclamatory Dialogue Stichomythia Dramatic Irony Foreshadowing Climax Denouement Pathetic Fallacy	DRAMA A Streetcar Named Desire Vulnerable Fragile Elysian Delusion Fantasy Hierarchy Power Industrialised Romanticised Dominance  Othello Malcontent Malicious Duplicitous Perfidious Malevolent Hubristic Hamartia Catharsis Exposition Denouement	Play Playwright Audience Act Scene Character Stage Direction Dialogue Monologue Soliloquy Protagonist Antagonist Narrator Tragic hero/heroine Hamartia Hubris Interrogative dialogue Imperative Declarative dialogue Exclamatory Dialogue Stichomythia Dramatic Irony Foreshadowing Climax Denouement Pathetic Fallacy	DRAMA A Streetcar Named Desire Vulnerable Fragile Elysian Delusion Fantasy Hierarchy Power Industrialised Romanticised Dominance  Othello Malcontent Malicious Duplicitous Perfidious Malevolent Hubristic Hamartia Catharsis Exposition Denouement	Play Playwright Audience Act Scene Character Stage Direction Dialogue Monologue Soliloquy Protagonist Antagonist Narrator Tragic hero/heroine Hamartia Hubris Interrogative dialogue Imperative Declarative dialogue Exclamatory Dialogue Stichomythia Dramatic Irony Foreshadowing Climax Denouement Pathetic Fallacy
PROSE  Wuthering Heights Misanthropic Byronic Supernatural Generational wealth Laconic Taciturn Vulnerable Fiendish Incestuous Epistolary  A Thousand Splendid Suns Taliban Oppressed Harami Segregation Hierarchy Vulnerability Punishment Retribution Endurance Education	Writer Reader First person narration Third person narration Chapter Direct Speech Reported Speech Character Setting Flashback Time Shift Foreshadowing Pathetic Fallacy Interrogative Declarative sentence Imperative Exclamatory sentence Exposition Epiphany Epilogue Symbol Stream of Consciousness Persona Mood Irony	PROSE  Wuthering Heights Misanthropic Byronic Supernatural Generational wealth Laconic Taciturn Vulnerable Fiendish Incestuous Epistolary  A Thousand Splendid Suns Taliban Oppressed Harami Segregation Hierarchy Vulnerability Punishment Retribution Endurance Education	Writer Reader First person narration Third person narration Chapter Direct Speech Reported Speech Character Setting Flashback Time Shift Foreshadowing Pathetic Fallacy Interrogative Declarative sentence Imperative Exclamatory sentence Exposition Epiphany Epilogue Symbol Stream of Consciousness Persona Mood Irony	PROSE  Wuthering Heights Misanthropic Byronic Supernatural Generational wealth Laconic Taciturn Vulnerable Fiendish Incestuous Epistolary  A Thousand Splendid Suns Taliban Oppressed Harami Segregation Hierarchy Vulnerability Punishment Retribution Endurance Education	Writer Reader First person narration Third person narration Chapter Direct Speech Reported Speech Character Setting Flashback Time Shift Foreshadowing Pathetic Fallacy Interrogative Declarative sentence Imperative Exclamatory sentence Exposition Epiphany Epilogue Symbol Stream of Consciousness Persona Mood Irony

POETRY Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti Pre-Raphaelite Narrative Tractarian Fallen Sonnet Litany Devotion Depression Fulfilment Judgement Post-2000 Modern Poetry Conflict Laconic Reminiscent Regret Exploration Oppression Selfhood Identity Mythology Tragedy Transition	Poet Reader Stanza Enjambment Caesura End-stopped line Onomatopoeia Rhyme Rhythm Couplet Metaphor Extended Metaphor Personification Imagery Alliteration Sibilance Assonance Anaphora Repetition Pun Paradox Oxymoron Tone Allusion	POETRY Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti Pre-Raphaelite Narrative Tractarian Fallen Sonnet Litany Devotion Depression Fulfilment Judgement Post-2000 Modern Poetry Conflict Laconic Reminiscent Regret Exploration Oppression Selfhood Identity Mythology Tragedy Transition	Poet Reader Stanza Enjambment Caesura End-stopped line Onomatopoeia Rhyme Rhythm Couplet Metaphor Extended Metaphor Personification Imagery Alliteration Sibilance Assonance Anaphora Repetition Pun Paradox Oxymoron Tone Allusion	POETRY Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti Pre-Raphaelite Narrative Tractarian Fallen Sonnet Litany Devotion Depression Fulfilment Judgement Post-2000 Modern Poetry Conflict Laconic Reminiscent Regret Exploration Oppression Selfhood Identity Mythology Tragedy Transition	Poet Reader Stanza Enjambment Caesura End-stopped line Onomatopoeia Rhyme Rhythm Couplet Metaphor Extended Metaphor Personification Imagery Alliteration Sibilance Assonance Anaphora Repetition Pun Paradox Oxymoron Tone Allusion
NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT The Handmaid's Tale Oppressed Theocratic Dystopian Speculative Biblical Procreation Tyrannical Ceremonial Rebellion Persecution		NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT The Handmaid's Tale Oppressed Theocratic Dystopian Speculative Biblical Procreation Tyrannical Ceremonial Rebellion Persecution		NON-EXAMINATION ASSESSMENT The Handmaid's Tale Oppressed Theocratic Dystopian Speculative Biblical Procreation Tyrannical Ceremonial Rebellion Persecution
CIAG		CIAG		CIAG
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Poet Laureate Competition</li> <li>• National Poetry Day</li> <li>• Book Club (TBC)</li> <li>• Lectures (Subject to availability)</li> <li>• Theatre (Subject to availability)</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• World Book Day</li> <li>• Book Club (TBC)</li> <li>• Lectures (Subject to availability)</li> <li>• Theatre (Subject to availability)</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Book Club (TBC)</li> <li>• Lectures (Subject to availability)</li> <li>• Theatre (Subject to availability)</li> </ul>

Key Stage Five: EDEXCEL A-Level English Literature (Year 13 2021-2022)

Overall Curriculum Goals
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To understand and analyse a range of advanced texts including drama, prose, and poetry from the Renaissance to the Modern Era and explore their place in the canon of English Literature</li> <li>To understand how to critically evaluate a text in the form of an essay using perceptive analysis making links to literary, social, and historical contexts</li> <li>To be able to critically evaluate the academic writings of others and use this to support and develop academic writing.</li> </ul>
Year 13 Half Term 1	Year 13 Half Term 2	Year 13 Half Term 3	Year 13 Half Term 4	Year 13 Half Term 5	Year 13 Half Term 6
Teacher One (Five Lessons)  Component Four: Non-Examination Assessment The Great Gatsby in comparison with another novel of the student's choice.  Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti  Teacher Two (Four Lessons)  Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons)  Component One: Drama Othello         Teacher Two (Four Lessons)  Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns	Teacher One (Five Lessons)  Component One: Drama Othello  Component Three: Poetry The Poetry of Christina Rossetti         Teacher Two (Four Lessons)  Component Two: Prose Wuthering Heights and A Thousand Splendid Suns  Component Three: Poetry Post-2000 Poetry Anthology	Teacher One (Five Lessons)  REVISION         Teacher Two (Four Lessons)  REVISION	Teacher One (Five Lessons)  REVISION         Teacher Two (Four Lessons)  REVISION
Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas	Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas	Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas		Key Vocabulary/Concepts/Ideas
Non-Examination Assessment Final drafting, feedback and completion.  POETRY  CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Narrative voice/speaker/poet's persona</li> <li>Use of language</li> <li>Use of imagery</li> <li>Form and structure</li> <li>Internal structures: enjambment, caesura, end-stopped lines</li> <li>Rhyme and rhythm</li> <li>Sounds in poetry</li> <li>Literary, social, and historical context (Rossetti)</li> <li>Independent analysis of poetry (anthology and unseen)</li> <li>Academic essay writing (including linking and comparison)</li> </ul>	DRAMA  Othello  CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>Iambic pentameter</li> <li>Blank verse and prose</li> <li>Use of language</li> <li>Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>Use of characters</li> <li>Use of setting</li> <li>The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> </ul>	POETRY  CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Narrative voice/speaker/poet's persona</li> <li>Use of language</li> <li>Use of imagery</li> <li>Form and structure</li> <li>Internal structures: enjambment, caesura, end-stopped lines</li> <li>Rhyme and rhythm</li> <li>Sounds in poetry</li> <li>Literary, social, and historical context (Rossetti)</li> <li>Independent analysis of poetry (anthology and unseen)</li> <li>Academic essay writing (including linking and comparison)</li> </ul> IDEAS Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti How does Rossetti explore love and relationships?

IDEAS  Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti How does Rossetti explore love and relationships?  How does Rossetti explore God, faith, and religion?  How does Rossetti explore gender and the relationships between men and women?  How does Rossetti explore temptation and earthly pleasures?  How does Rossetti explore death and loss? Post-2000 Poetry Anthology How do poets explore ideas about identity?  How do poets explore ideas about moving from innocence to experience?  How do poets explore ideas about violence and conflict?  How do poets explore ideas about relationships?  How do poets explore the conflict between man and nature?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul> PROSE CONCEPTS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The literary, social, and historical context of the novel</li> <li>• The gothic: isolated settings, the supernatural, characters of duality, doubling, bleak weather and landscapes, melodrama)</li> <li>• Frame narrative/multiple narrators</li> <li>• The use of an epistolary narrative</li> <li>• The use of language</li> <li>• The use of imagery</li> <li>• The concept of the Byronic hero</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The features of a historical novel</li> <li>• The social and historical context of Afghanistan in the second half of the twentieth century during the rise of the Taliban.</li> <li>• A male author telling a female story.</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of dialogue</li> <li>• Multiple narrative focusses</li> </ul> Both Texts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The position of women</li> <li>• The oppression of women</li> <li>• Social class and conventions</li> <li>• Contrasting settings indicative of class and position</li> <li>• The violence of men</li> <li>• Different narrative voices and focusses</li> <li>• Death and loss</li> </ul>	How does Rossetti explore God, faith, and religion?  How does Rossetti explore gender and the relationships between men and women?  How does Rossetti explore temptation and earthly pleasures?  How does Rossetti explore death and loss? DRAMA Othello CONCEPTS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conventions of a Shakespearean tragedy</li> <li>• Dramatic form and structure</li> <li>• Iambic pentameter</li> <li>• Blank verse and prose</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of metaphor and extended metaphor</li> <li>• Use of characters</li> <li>• Use of setting</li> <li>• The tragic hero cycle</li> </ul> IDEAS <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Iago presented as deceitful and duplicitous at the start of the play?</li> <li>• How do both Iago and Othello use rhetoric to achieve their aims?</li> <li>• How are the audience made complicit in Iago's plans and distanced from Othello?</li> <li>• How are women represented in the play?</li> <li>• How does Iago manipulate Othello and how does this expose his hamartia?</li> <li>• How is Othello presented at the end of the play? Do the audience experience true catharsis?</li> <li>• Does Othello complete the tragic hero cycle?</li> <li>• What is Iago's motive? Is he simply a 'motiveless malignity'?</li> </ul>
---	--	---	--	--	--

	IDEAS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Heathcliff presented at the start of the novel? Why is he presented as a character in power?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Lockwood as a narrator?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Nelly Dean as a narrator?</li> <li>• How does Bronte explore the prejudices of social class?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present the relationships between Heathcliff and Catherine?</li> <li>• How does Bronte make use of the gothic?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present ideas about violence?</li> <li>• How does Bronte use the character of a Heathcliff as symbolic of wider social advancements in society during the 19th century?</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Mariam presented at the start of the novel? How is her future foreshadowed by her treatment?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between parents and children?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present the relationships and power dynamics between women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini use the background of the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan to explore issues of war, and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the significance of women and education?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the endurance and resilience of women in oppressed circumstances?</li> <li>• Despite being based on female accounts of life under the Taliban, do we need to question Hosseini's narrative bias and position as a man outside this experience?</li> </ul>	PROSE CONCEPTS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The literary, social, and historical context of the novel</li> <li>• The gothic: isolated settings, the supernatural, characters of duality, doubling, bleak weather and landscapes, melodrama)</li> <li>• Frame narrative/multiple narrators</li> <li>• The use of an epistolary narrative</li> <li>• The use of language</li> <li>• The use of imagery</li> <li>• The concept of the Byronic hero</li> </ul> A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The features of a historical novel</li> <li>• The social and historical context of Afghanistan in the second half of the twentieth century during the rise of the Taliban.</li> <li>• A male author telling a female story.</li> <li>• Use of language</li> <li>• Use of imagery</li> <li>• Use of dialogue</li> <li>• Multiple narrative focusses</li> </ul> Both Texts <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The position of women</li> <li>• The oppression of women</li> <li>• Social class and conventions</li> <li>• Contrasting settings indicative of class and position</li> <li>• The violence of men</li> <li>• Different narrative voices and focusses</li> <li>• Death and loss</li> </ul> IDEAS Wuthering Heights <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Heathcliff presented at the start of the novel? Why is he presented as a character in power?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Lockwood as a narrator?</li> <li>• Why does Bronte use Nelly Dean as a narrator?</li> <li>• How does Bronte explore the prejudices of social class?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present the relationships between Heathcliff and Catherine?</li> <li>• How does Bronte make use of the gothic?</li> <li>• How does Bronte present ideas about violence?</li> <li>• How does Bronte use the character of a Heathcliff as symbolic of wider social advancements in society during the 19th century?</li> </ul>
--	--	---	--	--	--

		A Thousand Splendid Suns <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• How is Mariam presented at the start of the novel? How is her future foreshadowed by her treatment?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between parents and children?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present relationships between men and women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini present the relationships and power dynamics between women?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini use the background of the Taliban takeover of Afghanistan to explore issues of war, and oppression?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the significance of women and education?</li> <li>• How does Hosseini explore the endurance and resilience of women in oppressed circumstances?</li> <li>• Despite being based on female accounts of life under the Taliban, do we need to question Hosseini's narrative bias and position as a man outside this experience?</li> </ul>
VOCABULARY Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti  Pre-Raphaelite  Narrative  Tractarian  Fallen  Sonnet  Litany  Devotion  Depression  Fulfilment  Judgement Post-2000 Modern Poetry  Conflict  Laconic  Reminiscent  Regret  Exploration  Oppression  Selfhood  Identity  Mythology  Tragedy  Transition	VOCABULARY Othello  Malcontent  Malicious  Duplicitous  Perfidious  Malevolent  Hubristic  Hamartia  Catharsis  Exposition  Denouement Wuthering Heights  Misanthropic  Byronic  Supernatural  Generational wealth  Laconic  Taciturn  Vulnerable  Fiendish  Incestuous  Epistolary	VOCABULARY Pre-1900 Poetry: Christina Rossetti  Pre-Raphaelite  Narrative  Tractarian  Fallen  Sonnet  Litany  Devotion  Depression  Fulfilment  Judgement Othello  Malcontent  Malicious  Duplicitous  Perfidious  Malevolent  Hubristic  Hamartia  Catharsis  Exposition  Denouement	VOCABULARY	VOCABULARY	VOCABULARY

	A Thousand Splendid Suns Taliban Oppressed Harami Segregation Hierarchy Vulnerability Punishment Retribution Endurance Education	Wuthering Heights Misanthropic Byronic Supernatural Generational wealth Laconic Taciturn Vulnerable Fiendish Incestuous Epistolary  A Thousand Splendid Suns Taliban Oppressed Harami Segregation Hierarchy Vulnerability Punishment Retribution Endurance Education
CIAG	CIAG	CIAG	CIAG	CIAG	CIAG
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Poet Laureate Competition</li> <li>• National Poetry Day</li> <li>• Book Club (TBC)</li> <li>• Lectures (Subject to availability)</li> <li>• Theatre (Subject to availability)</li> </ul>		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• World Book Day</li> <li>• Book Club (TBC)</li> <li>• Lectures (Subject to availability)</li> <li>• Theatre (Subject to availability)</li> </ul>			